

ABSTRACT

Folklore is a way for a society to express itself through spoken language, reflecting various cultural aspects and social values. One such folklore in Solok, West Sumatra, is the Twin Lakes, also known as Upper Lakes and Lower Lakes. The Twin Lakes are renowned for their natural beauty, surrounded by hills with clear water that offers many lessons, including caution, hard work, and cultural ethics. The culture depicted by the Twin Lakes is one of perseverance and determination. This research method employed matrix analysis, including observation, literature study, and interviews. The aim of creating this illustrated book is to provide insight and knowledge of the importance of relaxation and to introduce the folklore of the Twin Lakes. The primary medium used is an illustrated book with visually appealing media to draw public interest in visiting the Twin Lakes Region.
