

PREFACE

In the name of Allah, the Most Compassionate and Most Merciful, I am grateful to present the final project report titled “Lop En Resing” A Short Film Media Design as A Part of Social Campaign to Raise Awareness for Teenagers on Illegal Racing in Bandung” This accomplishment would not have been possible without the unwavering support of my family, lecturers, and friends. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to:

1. Mr. Abdul Khotib and Mrs. Liswati, my parents, for their guidance and support throughout the challenges I faced.
2. Mr. Arief Budiman, S.SN., M.Sn., for facilitating the writing of this thesis.
3. Mrs. Sri Nurbani, S.Pd., M.Hum., for her guidance and support as my class advisor.
4. Mr. Rendy Pandita Bastari, S.Ds., M.Sn. and Mr. Dimas Krisna Aditya, S.IP., M.Sn., for their invaluable supervision and guidance.
5. Mr. Jiwa Utama, S.Ds., M.Ds. and I Gusti Agung Rangga, M.Ds., for examining my Final Project.
6. Naufal Musyafa (Former Illegal Racer) and Aqilah Syadza Farahmi (Psychology Major Graduates) for sharing their insights.
7. The entire community and my friends who participated in the questionnaire.
8. Adith Rahadian, Tsany Naufal Bahy, and the Lop En Resing film crew for their contributions to the film.
9. My friends and supporters who motivated and aided me throughout this process.
10. Author’s brother Hammam Faqieh Azzuhdy and his wife Salma Fitri for their assistance in the film’s post-production.

I acknowledge that this project has room for improvement, and I welcome constructive feedback to enhance its quality. My aspiration is that this study proves valuable to its readers.
