

ABSTRACT

PT Tri Wajo Mandiri is a company operating in the [company business sector] with a focus on [main focus of company activities]. This research aims to analyze various aspects related to PT Tri Wajo Mandiri, including the history of the company's development, the business strategies implemented, the company's contribution to the economy and society, as well as the environmental impacts generated by the company's operational activities. In the economic context, PT Tri Wajo Mandiri has a significant contribution through job creation and tax contribution. However, the environmental impact of the company's operations needs further attention, especially in relation to [relevant environmental aspects]. The company also needs to continue developing innovative business strategies to deal with dynamic market changes. This research provides an in-depth insight into the company profile of PT Tri Wajo Mandiri and the business, economic and environmental implications associated with its operations. It is hoped that the results of this study can provide further understanding of the company's role in sustainable development in various sectors and can be the basis for future strategic decisions.

Keywords: company, economy, operation.