

ABSTRACT

PT. Glostar Indonesia (GSI) has two factories, namely building A factory and building B factory, both of which produce shoes products. The author is placed in factory building B to make observations in order to obtain the information needed to continue research. PT. Glostar Indonesia (GSI) is a factory that produces various types and models of shoes for export purposes. Seeing opportunities for economic improvement in the industrial sector, this sector continues to develop supported by natural resources and human resources, said PT. Gloucester Indonesia (GSI) seeks to carry out investment activities by building a footwear industry that has good prospects for the company's economy and human needs. This company is a legal entity established under Indonesian law and operates in the field of making casual shoes. PT. Gloster Indonesia (GSI) has two factories, namely Construction Factory A and Construction Factory B, both of which produce footwear products. The author arranged to visit Factory B to obtain the information necessary to continue the research

Keywords : inventory, sales card, barcode