

ABSTRACT

Baros village located at Arjasari sub district West Java, district Bandung is one of the tourist village that own an award as "Best Tourist Village in Indonesia". Baros village has attracted people eyes to come visit Baros village, Baros vilage has own recreation place and its own traditional food, although Baros vilage just got an award, Baros village progress are now at development stage. Their mision and vision are targeting an independent village which is they can produce their own daily needs. Purpose of the research are writer intended to give more service focusing first to building official Baros village website for storing information that given from the local management and dont have to use a blogspot from another user perspective, so the information about Baros village can maintainly updated to new information, new project will come and another information that given to tourist always new.

Keywords : Website Design, Baros Village, Bandung Regency Tourism Village