

FOREWORD

All praise and gratitude of the author offer the presence of Allah SWT, who has given His Mercy, taufiq, hidayah, and inayah bestowed on the author, so that the author can complete his thesis entitled "Generation Z Teenagers' Perception Of Parenting By Divorced Parents In Samarinda City, East Kalimantan. As a requirement to obtain a bachelor's degree in communication science, the communication science study program.

The writing of this thesis begins with the author's concern for some of the author's closest friends who can give their perceptions about the divorce of their parents. So in some cases the author is worried that the writer's friends will always feel that their relationship with family will continue to be tenuous. It was on this basis that this study was conducted.

The author realizes that this thesis is far from perfect. Therefore, criticism and suggestions from readers are very much expected to perfect this research.

Penilis would like to express his respect and gratitude to Telkom University, especially the communication science study program, faculty of communication and business for the knowledge and insights that have been provided.

In completing this research, the author received guidance and assistance from various parties. Therefore the author would like to express my deepest gratitude to:

1. To Allah SWT who provides opportunities, health and favors for the author so that the author can complete this research.
2. Mr. Prof. Dr. Adiwijaya, S.Si., M.Si., as rector and highest leader of Telkom University
