

PREFACE

All praise be to Allah SWT, Lord of the Universe, the Most Gracious and Most Merciful, who has bestowed His mercy and guidance, enabling the successful and timely completion of this final project. May peace and blessings be upon the Prophet Muhammad SAW, who continues to be a noble example for all of humanity. This final project titled “INTEGRATIVE APPROACH OF IS SUCCESS MODEL (ISSM) ON FACTORS INFLUENCING THE ADOPTION OF MATERNAL HEALTH APPLICATIONS IN RURAL INDONESIAN COMMUNITIES” is submitted as one of the requirements for completing the study program at Telkom University. Many parties have provided various forms of support and advice throughout the process of completing this final thesis. Therefore, heartfelt gratitude is extended to:

1. Both parents, Mr. Wisnu Wibowo and Mrs. Heni Rohayati, who have always provided love, blessings, moral and material support, and continuous encouragement.
2. Mr. Rahmat Fauzi, S.T., M.T., as the first academic advisor, for the knowledge and guidance provided throughout this period.
3. Ir. Ari Fajar Santoso, M.T., as the second academic advisor, for the knowledge and guidance provided throughout this period.
4. Mr. Luthfi Ramadani, S.T., M.T., Ph.D., as the academic advisor who has guided and provided direction to the author from the first year to the final year throughout the course of their studies.
5. Friends who have always provided support, encouragement, and camaraderie that has always been present.
6. My friends from my final project/thesis group, Muhammad Nabel Islami and Athar Fariq Harish, who always provided support, encouragement, and companionship.

In the process of preparing this Final Project, it was realized that there were still shortcomings. Therefore, sincere apologies are offered, and it is hoped that this Final Project will be beneficial to those involved and potentially serve as a source of learning in the future.
