

ABSTRACT

State Electricity-Officer Cooperative (KPLN) Dayeuhkolot is an officer cooperative which member of employees of PLN role and producing in regions Dayeuhkolot Bandung. This cooperative serve saving and loan transaction to the entire member, also serve commercial transaction to the member and non member. Commercial transaction related to member is lending in the form of goods, while with non member is accomplishment of goods for project of PLN.

Management of commercial and saving and loan transaction in this cooperative still be done manually, where every transaction data happened noted at paper sheet. This thing seems uneffective to help cooperative party to implement the business process. Saving and loan transaction process happened requiring encoding, record-keeping of report and transaction for assisting cooperative party side implement the business process.

With the existence of the application of this cooperative management can assist the side of KPLN Dayeuhkolot in activity of record-keeping of transaction and also report at operational level.

This application is having the character of client server which built using Visual Basic programming language, MySQL database, and also other support application.

Keyword: saving and loan transaction, commercial transaction, cooperative