

ABSTRACT

Shaffira Computer is a store that has a fairly complex business processes in the processing of data, either data or sales data of purchase. Until now, the data processing still using manual system that has not been computerized and the data storage is still scattered and not well documented. Where in the data processing still using Microsoft Excel and Microsoft Word, do not have a database as data storage media.

Therefore, this final project titled Retail Sales Applications Computer Shaffira is a deal of media processing and data storage sin Computer Store shaffira Bandung, including processing of sales data, purchase data, and data related to the number of stock items in store Shaffira Computer.

This Retail Sales Applications Computer Shaffira is a desktop application that has stand alone characteristic. This final project is made by using waterfall method, and is implemented by using programming language Borland Delphi 7.0, while for the processing of database using Microsoft SQL Server 2000.

Key words : desktop application, database, stand alone.