ABSTRACT

In fulfilling the criteria SNP (National Standards of Educations), SMAN 1 Sigli need a digital storage that has relatively small that allows data to be lost and damaged and with a relatively large amount of storage. In this case the data registries. Therefore the data concerning the registrant needs to be maintained and stored properly.

Application system design refers to the process that began with the flow businesses registration activities of problem analysis, system design using UML for documentation, specifications, and models of the system, interface design, to testing activities. Making an application is focused on the collection of data prospective new students. This application is created using PHP programming and with Codeigniter framework and MySQL database.

Keyword: Registration, Schedule, Data Collection, New Students