

Abstract

Financial management can be defined as a series of activities related to financial planning, how to monitor the course of a financial activity, and can make accurate financial reports in order to be a material consideration in financial planning in the next period so that the results of financial planning The next period right on target.

Financial management activities is a routine activity conducted by an organization or agency, is no exception to the Faculty of Informatics IT Telkom Bandung. Financial management at the Faculty of Informatics IT Telkom Bandung is not going well, this is caused by several factors, such as human error factor where it may interfere with the course of a financial activity.

Therefore, the final project titled "Applications Recording And Monitoring Actual Use of Budget Faculty of Informatics IT Telkom Bandung" was built to assist in financial monitoring activities at the Faculty of Informatics IT Telkom Bandung. Despite the computer as the storage of financial data, in fact on the financial monitoring still has obstacles include a lack of consistency of financial data. For that, they need applications that can handle the recording and monitoring of financial problems.

The results of this final project is an application that can support web berbasisi in recording and monitoring of financial activities in the Faculty of Informatics IT Telkom Bandung. The final project was built using a model of RUP (Rational Unified Process). Implemented using the programming language by using the Code Igniter PHP and using MySQL database and other supporting software.

Keywords: Finance, Recording, Monitoring, Framework, PHP, MySQL