

ABSTRACT

Today, preservation of cultures in Indonesia, is important. Indonesia is a nation that has a great nation which consists of various tribes, and they have their culture each other. This culture must be maintained until hereditary.

One of the cultures in Indonesia is Lampung script, this script has been found for many years ago. However, only a little of people know about Lampung script. This is important to introduce Lampung script to children nations to make cultural literacy to be continued.

In order to preserve cultural literacy Lampung script to be better, it must take an application that can be introduced Lampung script to the community as well as they can learn through medium learning, not by hard. In addition, it also requires a functionality that can read and write the Lampung script. So that, the preservation of culture in Indonesia, actually in Lampung script, can be maintained properly.
